

Modules

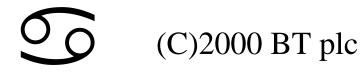

- •Introducing the concept of CERT within the organisation.
- Establishing a CERT team within the organisation.
- •Links with external security organisations.
- •Organisational funding in the market place.

(C)2000 BT plc

Introducing the concept of CERT within the organisation.

- Define what and/or who is your organisation.
- Defining the organisational assets and risks
- Understand the role of CERTs. Case Study some teams.
- Define the CERT constituency and its customers.
- Define team positioning within the organisational hierarchy.
- •Plan for internal management buy-in from bottom up.
- •Plan for permanent funding and creation of the budget.

Establishing a CERT team within the organisation.

- Recruiting staff.
- Plans for accommodation.
- Planning for network and or ISP connections.
- Creation of the IRP and security policies.
- •Internal and external media and PR plan.
- •Plan for law enforcement links.
- •Legal Representation.

(C)2000 BT plc

Links with external security organisations.

- •Links with other CERT teams nationally and internationally.
- •FIRST accreditation process.
- Working with vulnerability alerting organisations.
- •Organisational Security Web Page.
- Creating the external links into the organisational IRP.

(C)2000 BT plc

Organisational funding in the market place.

- •Benchmarking process for reporting and funding.
- Plan for self sufficiency internal.
- Plan for self sufficiency externally.
- Understanding the external security market and market issues.

